

VOLUME XIV. THE DAILY SENTINEL

Under the Name and Firm of King & Co. MILWAUKEE: Saturday Morning, March 14.

For Chief Justice of the Supreme Court, EDWARD V. WHITON. ELECTION, TUESDAY, APRIL 7.

Terrible Railroad Accident—Nearly a Hundred Lives Lost. The telegraph has just received further details of the terrible accident to an accommodation train on the Canada R.R. between Hamilton and Toronto, by which nearly a hundred persons were suddenly sent to eternity.

It will be remembered that at the election of 1856, a very large number of ballots were cast, by an error in printing the tickets, for Edward V. Whiton instead of Edward V. Whiton. We trust that no such error will be committed this time, but that the names will be correctly printed throughout the State.

The Supreme Court Decision. The late decision of the U. S. Supreme Court, which has, as successive vacancies have occurred, been packed with friends of the peculiar institution, has been a source of great satisfaction to the pro-slavery element.

It is strange that, on the eve of such a decision as that in the Dred Scott case, striking at the very foundations of State Sovereignty, the decision was known before the people of the country.

Later from Kansas. Close of the Bogus Legislature—Bloody Character—Character of Love Fiasco—Governor Geary's True Character Developed.

Special Correspondence of the Chicago Tribune. LEXINGTON, K., Feb. 25, '57. The bogus territorial legislature has drawn its last breath. The session, fixed for its deliberations at the close of the year, has been a complete failure.

While the legislature was in session, the people of Kansas were engaged in a struggle for the right of self-government. The legislature, however, was a mere puppet of the pro-slavery element.
